P&O Cruises Weddings at Sea Package

The P&O Cruises Weddings at Sea package includes the following:

- attractive wedding ceremony venue
- two fresh floral arrangements to adorn the ceremonial location*
- traditional wedding music (or your choice of music)
- a romantic wedding ceremony at sea conducted by the Captain
- commemorative wedding certificate
- bottle of champagne
- on board Wedding Coordinator
- invitations and thank you notes
- an additional 5kg luggage allowance for both the bride and groom if travelling to the ship on a P&O Cruises charter flight

*please note these are venue decorations and not kept by the couple.
 please note this will not show on your ticket.

We know that every bride and groom has different expectations of their big day. The P&O Cruises Weddings at Sea package features the following optional extras, which will allow you to tailor your wedding to your own specific wishes:

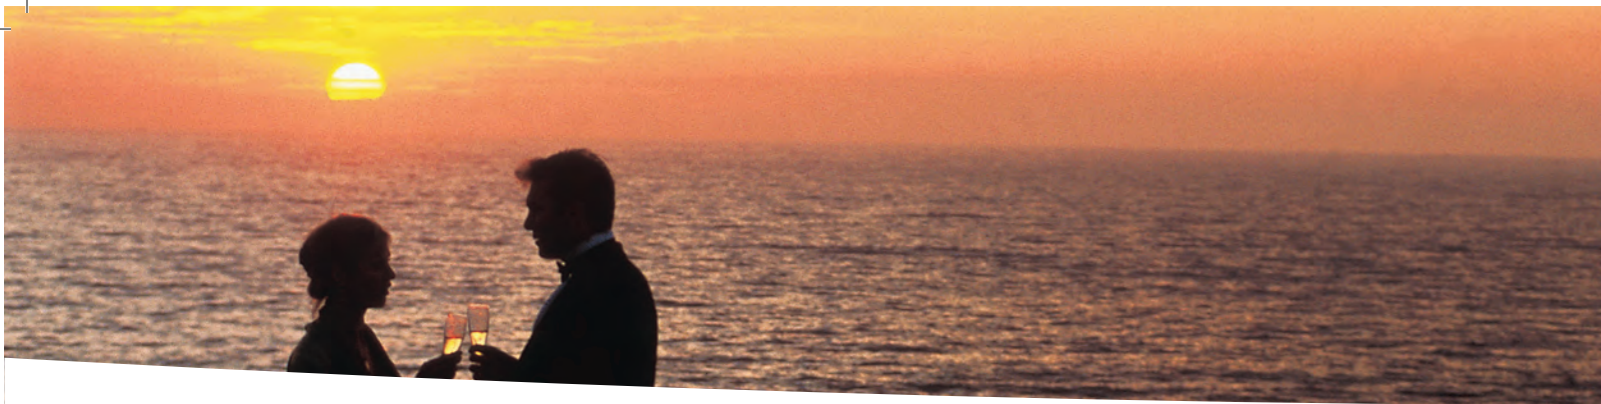

- wedding flowers
- wedding cakes
- photographs and a personalised video of your ceremony
- bride and groom's champagne breakfast in bed
- spa services for both the bride & groom
- celebrations and receptions

Group Bookings

So that as many of your friends and family can join you for your special day, we are delighted to offer a 5% discount on the adult fare for groups of 10 adults or more travelling on the cruise. The 5% discount is only combinable with brochured early bird savings and travel agent special departures (ask your travel agent for details).

Weddings are available on most cruises on Arcadia, Adonia, Aurora, Azura, Oceana, Oriana and Ventura. Weddings are conducted by the Captain whilst at sea.

Please note that we require a minimum of three months' notice to organise your wedding. On the following pages, you will find all the necessary details to help you plan your own special day, and a list of current prices is available at the back of this booklet.

“Away from land, you can really immerse yourself in the romance of the day”

A Unique Experience

Getting married on board is a wonderfully unique experience. P&O Cruises makes every guest on board feel special, and never more so than when you choose to tie the knot with us. Benefit from our attention to detail and renowned standards of service and let the day pass in a whirl of laughter, music and champagne.

Away from land, you can really immerse yourself in the romance of the day. Our staff will take care of all the little details and you can enjoy your day free without any of the usual worries about getting from the ceremony to the reception. After all, on board, everything you could need is on your doorstep. Sailing with Britain's leading cruise line, you can be assured that the day's proceedings will run smoothly and even better, your honeymoon can commence from the moment you say 'I do'.

Your experience begins from the moment you arrive, when we deliver a bottle of champagne, flowers and fresh fruit to your cabin to celebrate the start of your special cruise.

On board, our Wedding Coordinator is on hand to take care of all the arrangements for your big day, giving you infinite peace of mind. Our Coordinator will arrange to meet you early in your cruise to confirm all the details for your wedding, and to check that you have everything you need. The Coordinator will also arrange for you to meet our professional photographer in order to discuss any photography requirements you may have on the day.

Your special ceremony will be conducted in a romantic venue on board,¹ adorned with fresh floral arrangements and the soft sound of traditional wedding music. The Captain will lead you through the service, to the exchanging of vows and finally pronounce you husband and wife. Once the register has been signed, there will be a celebratory champagne toast, and the P&O Cruises commemorative wedding certificate will be presented.²

Your ceremony must be witnessed by two adults, aged 18 or over. If you do not have any witnesses travelling with you, two members of the ship's company will be pleased to act as witnesses on your behalf.

Although we provide traditional wedding music for the ceremony entrance and signing of the register, you are welcome to provide your own music on CD, if you prefer. Also, you may like to arrange for a member of your wedding party to read a piece of poetry or prose during your ceremony.

If you would like some ideas for either readings or music, we can send you a booklet entitled "Collection of Verse and Music for your Civil Marriage" – please indicate if you would like this on the Booking Form enclosed at the back of this booklet (a small charge applies).

Wedding Photography

Location, it can make or break a photograph. Of course one of the many benefits of being married at sea is that you have a breathtaking backdrop all around you. And with a team of professional photographers to catch every moment of your special day in both photography and film, you can be sure of having the most wonderful memories captured for all time.

Please note that, as with all civil ceremonies, your selected music and readings must not be of a religious nature. Should you choose a reading or your own music for your ceremony, you will need to bring your selected reading and/or music with you on your cruise.

Invitations

Should you wish to send invitations out to your guests, we would be pleased to send you the required quantity free of charge before your cruise departure. Please indicate your requirements on the Booking Form³.

Pressing Services

Should you require your bridal outfits pressed before your wedding, we would be happy to organise this for the bride and groom free of charge. Please ask your on board Wedding Coordinator to arrange this service for you. Please note, however, that we may not be able to offer the pressing service on garments of a particularly delicate and/or intricate nature.

Thank You Notes

If you would like to send out thank you notes to your guests, please let your on board Wedding Coordinator know, who will arrange for these to be delivered to your cabin during your cruise.

Itinerary Changes

Due to the possibility of itinerary changes, we do not recommend engraving commemorative items with the date or port of the wedding. We can not be held liable if engraved items are incorrect as a result of such changes.

1. Wedding venues have limited seating capacity – for large groups, please check with the Wedding Planner when you book.
2. The P&O Cruises commemorative wedding certificate will be issued during your cruise. The official marriage certificate, which must be sent to Bermuda to register your marriage, will be sent to your home address approximately ten to twelve weeks after the end of your cruise.
3. Invitations and thank you notes can be provided for those guests who will be attending your wedding at sea.

Extra Touches

Wedding Flowers

Available in a range of colours and styles, our fragrant, fresh blooms are certain to add a special sense of occasion to your day. Whether it is a pretty, traditional posy or a vibrant exotic bouquet that you are seeking, these exquisite flowers will be carefully selected and beautifully arranged for you and your bridesmaids. From romantic roses, elegant lilies or colourful gerberas to hand-tied or teardrop bouquets, you can be assured of the very best of quality. Our on board florists can also make a selection of buttonholes, corsages, pedestal, table and aisle arrangements to match your chosen theme¹. Wedding flowers must be pre-booked and can be ordered within three months of departure. Flowers must be paid for 56 days before departure – please see price list at the back of this booklet for more information.

* Adonia flowers are delivered on embarkation day only, and there cannot be any changes once booked and confirmed.

Wedding Cakes

Whether you prefer an elegantly simple one-tier cake (perfect for just the two of you), or a more elaborate three-tier wedding cake, our pastry chef will create this for you using the freshest and finest ingredients. Our cakes are decorated with traditional white icing and topped with delicate sugar flowers, giving them a contemporary and elegant look. Alternatively, especially for the chocoholics, why not opt for our decadent chocolate sponge? Cake boxes are available should you wish to buy a cake to take home with you to enjoy later¹. Wedding cakes must be pre-booked and can be ordered within three months of departure. Cakes must be paid for 56 days before departure – please see price list at the back of this booklet for more information.

Photography & Videography Services

There's nothing better than having the opportunity to look back at your wedding photographs or film and remember the special day, whether it's days, years or months after the event, so it's important to have an experienced photographer you can trust to capture these magical memories for you.

Our team of professional photographers will take the time to find out exactly what you want from your photographs. Be it candid shots of your pre-wedding preparations, or beautifully posed formal prints and videography – they will talk you through all the wedding products and services available so you can tailor the service to suit your desired style and budget.

As the photographers are based on board the ship, they know which locations will create the most stunning and unique backdrops to your pictures and, of course, it means they will be on hand every day. They can create beautiful bespoke wedding albums and DVDs, both of which can be taken home with you at the end of your cruise, perfect for you to share with friends and family as soon as you return home.

Making Your Day Special

Bride & Groom's Champagne Breakfast in Bed

Wake up to the bride and groom's champagne breakfast in bed, which is delivered to your cabin at your preferred time, and includes:

- half bottle of champagne
- orange juice
- a selection of continental cheeses and meats
- fresh fruit and yoghurt
- a selection of freshly-made Danish pastries, croissants and pains au chocolat
- a choice of tea or coffee

Your Champagne Breakfast in Bed may be pre-booked within three months of your cruise departure date or booked on board (see price list at back of booklet). Pre-booked breakfasts must be paid for no later than 56 days before your cruise departure date.

Shore Excursions

If you fancy celebrating your nuptials with a specially arranged romantic activity ashore, such as scuba diving in the Caribbean, city sightseeing by horse and carriage or a gondola for two in Venice, we can investigate the options for you. Please let the Wedding Coordinator know what sort of activity you are interested in at the time of booking, so that we can research details and prices for you. Please note that all proposed activities are subject to availability and we cannot, therefore, guarantee to fulfil all shore excursion requests.

Gift Services

We have a range of gifts² for the whole wedding party from the mother of the bride, to the page boy, to the bride herself. Everything from champagne, chocolates and flowers to relaxing spa treatments, or why not opt for one of our exclusive celebration packages to make the day extra special. You can also purchase Gift Credit from £5 upwards, which is automatically applied to the recipient's on board account at the start of the cruise – the perfect gift from friends and family back home. Our gifts are presented with a personalised message, and delivered to the cabin on the day of your choice.

1. If you are embarking/disearking in a foreign port, please be aware that not all countries permit the importing/exporting of flowers and/or food, and some airlines do not permit passengers to carry such items on board.

2. Please note that we require a minimum of 72 hours notice for the delivery of any gift.

“We have a range of occasion services to ensure you are looking and feeling your best on your special day”

Spa Services

The perfect wedding requires careful planning and a personal touch, and achieving the perfect look for your special day is no different. At the Oasis Spa, we have a range of occasion services to ensure you are looking and feeling your very best on your special day (a full list of services is available on request). Spa services may be pre-booked within three months of your cruise departure date or booked on board (see price list at back of booklet), however, as there is limited availability on some services, we recommend pre-booking. All pre-booked options must be paid for no later than 56 days before your cruise departure date.

Beautiful Hair

Whether it's a relaxing wash and style to take the stress out of getting ready on the big day, or an intricate hair design of your choice, our team of professional stylists are here to help. This service includes a free consultation and trial which takes place on embarkation day. Book with Wedding Day Make-Up to receive a discount.

Make-up Application

The key to perfect make-up is finding the perfect balance. Our aim is to ensure that your wedding day make-up enhances your natural features, is "camera friendly", and long-lasting. This service includes a free consultation and trial which takes place on embarkation day.

45 minutes

Fire & Ice Manicure

For beautiful hands when you exchange rings, treat yourself to a Fire and Ice Manicure. This invigorating manicure will warm your spirit and cool your stress. Using a combination of therapeutic cooling gels and the warmth of massage with a heated stone, your skin will be smoother and your nails will be nourished and polished to perfection.

50 minutes

Fire & Ice Pedicure

This super rejuvenating pedicure will warm your senses and cool your tension. Savour the sublime feeling as your feet and lower legs are soothed with our cooling gels and then warmed with a heated stone massage. This combination of hot and cold, plus aroma-therapeutic ingredients promote healthy-looking skin and nails leaving the bride feeling perfectly relaxed for her big day.

60 minutes

Ionithermie Cellulite – Reduction Programme

To help insure your outfits are the perfect fit, our slimming therapy aims to detoxify the body, reduces the appearance of cellulite and offers substantial inch loss, over a course of treatments. Galvanic stimuli propels rich marine elements into affected areas to drain fluid, smooth the skin and give the body more definition to have you in perfect condition for your big day.

50 minutes

There are many more fabulous treatments for both the bride and groom to choose from, these treatments can either be pre-booked before your cruise, or once on board. Please ask for a Oasis Spa Brochure to see the full treatment list.

Celebrations & Receptions

Whether you are celebrating as a couple, or with a group of friends and family, we can make all the necessary arrangements for you. Celebrations and receptions may be pre-booked within three months of your cruise departure date or booked on board, and all associated amounts are charged to your on board account at the end of your cruise. Sample menus are provided on the following pages. Childrens menus are available, please ask your on board Wedding Coordinator.

Small & Intimate

If you are celebrating as a couple, or with a small group, you may opt for an intimate evening meal in one of our Select Dining venues¹. Please note that we are unable to offer exclusive use of the venue.

On Arcadia and Oriana you might choose to dine in one of our exclusive restaurants created by esteemed British chef Gary Rhodes, Arcadian Rhodes or Oriana Rhodes at the Curzon. Alternatively on Arcadia you could opt for the fragrant Orchid Restaurant.

Ventura offers the culinary expertise of Marco Pierre White in his restaurant The White Room, or exotic creations in East, Ventura's Pan-Pacific restaurant.

Whilst on Azura you could dine in Seventeen, the elegant fine dining restaurant where you have the opportunity to dine under the stars. On Adonia, you could dine in the Italian fine dining restaurant, Sorrento, or the relaxed setting of the al fresco Ocean Grill.

On Oceana, you can indulge in a succulent steak under the stars at the Horizon Grill, whilst enjoying fabulous ocean views, or opt for atrium views at the Café Jardin, where sumptuous French cuisine has been expertly crafted by Marco Pierre White.

Aurora offers an equally enticing grill menu in the al fresco Pennant Grill. Alternatively, you can enjoy exquisite Marco Pierre White bistro style French cuisine at the Café Bordeaux.

Traditional Wedding Luncheon*

If you would like a small and informal celebration over lunch, a separate table can be laid out for you in one of our main restaurants, where you will be served with our set wedding menu. Please note that we are unable to offer exclusive use of the venue and this option is only available for morning weddings.

Private Wedding Luncheon* – Arcadia/Oriana/Ventura/Azura

For groups of 30 or more, on Arcadia we can reserve either Arcadian Rhodes or The Orchid Restaurant for your private wedding luncheon, whilst on Oriana, Oriana Rhodes at the Curzon is available, on Ventura, you can choose from either The White Room or East and on Azura there is Seventeen.

Ventura offers the culinary expertise of Marco Pierre White in his restaurant The White Room, or exotic creations in East, Ventura's Pan-Pacific restaurant.

We suggest parties of 10 or more that would like to dine in a Select Dining venue book the morning wedding slot, as evening restrictions apply. In the evening we are only able to accept wedding parties of 8 or less in the White Room on board Ventura and Seventeen on board Azura.

Buffets*†

Dependent on group size, we can lay on a choice of three sumptuous buffets in one of our well-appointed function rooms, the Wedding Reception Buffet (Cold Selection) or the Wedding Reception Finger Buffet for 10 or more guests, and the Deluxe Wedding Reception Buffet for 30 or more guests. Please note, however, that it may not be possible to offer exclusive use of the room.

Canapés

Alternatively, you can choose from a range of canapés to celebrate your special occasion; the Exotic Canapé Selection, the Deluxe Canapé Selection, the Gourmet Canapé Selection and the Occasional Canapé Selection. Dependent on the size of the group, and the time requested, canapés can be served in your cabin or in a function room. Please note, however, that it may not be possible to offer exclusive use of the room.

Wines & Champagnes

To complement your chosen celebration, you can choose from a range of wines and champagnes housed in one of the finest cellars afloat. Please ask your on board Wedding Coordinator for more details. Wines & Champagnes are booked on board, and all associated amounts are charged to your onboard account at the end of your cruise.

Wedding Bar Tab

If you would like to buy the first round of drinks for your guests, you can open a tab with a maximum limit of your choice. Please ask your Wedding Coordinator to organise this for you once on board.

* tea & coffee and jugs of water are supplied free of charge.
† Please note that it is not possible to offer the buffets selection for wedding performed at 3.30pm.

Terms & Conditions

The terms and conditions below apply to the Weddings at Sea Programme in addition to the Booking Conditions, found in the P&O Cruises brochure, which apply to your cruise. In the event of conflict between the two sets, these terms and conditions will prevail over the Booking Conditions. Please ensure that you have read and understood these Terms & Conditions prior to making a booking.

1. DEFINITIONS

In this Contract and unless the context requires otherwise, defined terms are the same as in the Booking Conditions unless a different meaning is given to the defined term here: “Booking Form” means the form which must be completed by Passengers wishing to purchase the Weddings at Sea Package; “Contract” means the contract made between P&O Cruises and the Passengers relating to the provision of wedding services; “Optional Extras” means optional goods and services additional to those included in the Weddings at Sea Package; “Passengers” means the persons named in the Booking Form; and “the Weddings at Sea Package” means the wedding goods and services, as described in this booklet, to be provided by P&O Cruises for the set fee including the organisation of a wedding ceremony.

2. THE CONTRACT

Passengers must read this wedding booklet in conjunction with the relevant P&O Cruises brochure for full details of the cruise.

Passengers are advised to read the section on Legal Requirements before making a booking.

P&O Cruises is unable to accept bookings for weddings within three months of departure of the relevant cruise.

The Weddings at Sea Package is subject to availability and Passengers must check whether there is availability to provide the Weddings at Sea Package on the cruise in question with P&O Cruises prior to booking. Optional Extras are subject to availability and may usually be booked from approximately three months before departure date.

Wedding dates may be provisionally reserved for up to 14 days during which time the Booking Form must be completed and sent back to P&O Cruises. Following receipt of a completed Booking Form, P&O Cruises will contact the Passenger in order to arrange payment of a deposit of 25 per cent of the price of the Weddings at Sea Package. No Contract is formed until payment of the deposit is received by P&O Cruises.

Both parties must speak and understand English.

The ceremony may be performed by the Staff Captain, instead of the Captain, if the Staff Captain is in command of the vessel at the time of the ceremony.

Passengers will be jointly liable for the cost of any booking made.

3. LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

The P&O Cruises Weddings at Sea ceremony is a civil service conducted under Bermudian law. The wedding banns are published in two newspapers in Bermuda.

Bermudian law marriages are recognised as valid in the UK provided that:

- 1) The ceremony is conducted on the high seas
- 2) Passengers have complied with all formalities that Bermudian law prescribes and
- 3) Both Passengers comply with the requirements of the law of the country in which they are domiciled relating to the capacity of a person to marry.

P&O Cruises have set out below the requirements to be satisfied in order for the wedding to be in accordance with Bermudian law, but it is the sole responsibility of each of the Passengers to ensure they comply with the requirements of the law of their country of domicile if the marriage is to be recognised as valid in the UK.

Bermudian Law

Bermudian law says that the following requirements must be fulfilled by passengers wishing to be married at sea:

- the parties must not be within prohibited degrees of relationship (i.e. they must not be too closely related by birth or marriage)
- the parties must both be over 16 years of age
- if either party is under 18 years of age, the consent of a parent or guardian is required. The consent will have to be formalised by a notary public. Passengers should take independent advice in this respect and will be personally responsible for ensuring that a notarised consent is available in good time
- neither party is suffering from a mental disorder as defined under the Mental Health Act 1968
- neither party must knowingly and wilfully agree to marry using a false name or names
- neither party must knowingly and wilfully agree to the marriage without the required notice being given of the marriage or without the necessary licence
- neither party may be married to another person at the time of the marriage ceremony
- the marriage must be contracted before a Marriage Officer (the Captain or Staff Captain)
- the parties must not be of the same sex.

Validity in England, Wales and Northern Ireland

Your marriage will be recognised as valid in England, Wales and Northern Ireland so long as all the above formalities have been complied with and provided that both passengers comply with certain other requirements of the law of the country in which they are domiciled.

Passengers who are domiciled in England, Wales and Northern Ireland, for example, have to comply with certain rules to enable them to be married, including but not limited to the following:

- the parties must be respectively male and female
- the parties must not be within prohibited degrees of relationship (i.e. they must not be too closely related by birth or marriage)
- the parties must both be a minimum of 16 years of age
- if either party is under 18 years of age the consent of a parent or guardian will be required
- each party must be capable of giving valid consent to the marriage (consent can be invalidated by, for example, the giving of a false name, address or description, duress, insanity or intoxication of either party to the marriage)
- neither party must be married to another person at the time of the marriage ceremony or have registered a Civil Partnership which has not been dissolved.

Validity in Scotland

The rules in relation to the validity of a marriage under Scottish law are the same as for England, Wales and Northern Ireland subject to the following:

- there is no need for the consent of a parent or a guardian where either party is above the age of 16 but below the age of 18 years
- the prohibited degrees of relationship are slightly different to those in England, Wales and Northern Ireland and Scottish passengers should seek separate advice in this area, where appropriate.

Domicile

For these reasons it is essential that you take independent legal advice on the law of the country of domicile of each of you before the booking is made to ensure that your marriage will be in compliance with your applicable law.

In general terms, a person's domicile will be the place where the person is resident if he or she lives there with the intention of making it his or her permanent home. Please note, however, that it is possible to be resident in one country but domiciled in another. If you are domiciled outside the UK and want your marriage to be recognised in the UK, you must also comply with the UK requirements set out above.

P&O Cruises accepts no liability whatsoever for any failure of the marriage to be valid as a result of one or both of the Passengers' failure to ensure their compliance with the law of the country in which they are domiciled.

4. PRICES

Please note that the prices for the Weddings at Sea Package and Optional Extras in the current price list are correct at the time of going to press and are intended to be applicable for cruises departing up until the date specified in that price list. However, we reserve the right to change prices advertised without notice. You can find our latest prices on our website at www.pocruises.co.uk/weddings or call us for details. Once you have booked your Weddings at Sea Package and any Optional Extras, the price of these will not change.

5. PAYMENT

Payment is due in respect of the balance of the Weddings at Sea Package and the wedding licence fees four months prior to departure of the cruise. Failure to pay the balance of the Weddings at Sea Package and wedding licence fees by the due date shall entitle P&O Cruises to cancel the booking for the Weddings at Sea Package and retain the 25 per cent deposit by way of a cancellation charge.

Payment for most Optional Extras booked in advance is due at the time of booking the Optional Extras, and no later than 56 days before departure. Failure to pay for Optional Extras by the due date shall entitle P&O Cruises to cancel the Optional Extras. Please note that the fee for the wedding licence is non-refundable unless the wedding is cancelled by P&O Cruises due to P&O Cruises' fault.

Failure to pay any other amount by the due date shall entitle P&O Cruises to cancel the booking and to retain an amount by way of a cancellation charge as set out in clause 7.

6. CHANGES TO THE WEDDING BY THE PASSENGER

Subject always to availability and to payment of any expenses incurred by P&O Cruises as a result, a Passenger may change the date of the wedding up to 56 days before the cruise departure date, so long as the request is for a change of date on the same cruise and either the licence issued by the Registry General of Bermuda is valid for that date or a new licence can be obtained. Please note that the licence is valid for three months only from the date of issue.

Any requests for a change of the wedding to a different cruise will be considered if received more than four months before the cruise departure date, but the request will be subject to availability and to payment of both an administration charge of £100 and any expenses (such as a charge for a new licence, should one be necessary) incurred by P&O Cruises as a result. Cancellation charges may also be payable for the cruise under the Booking Conditions.

After Optional Extras have been booked, P&O Cruises will try to accommodate any request for changes, but such changes are always at P&O Cruises' discretion and are subject to an administration charge of £20 plus any expenses incurred.

7. CANCELLATION OF THE WEDDING BY THE PASSENGER

The Passenger may cancel the Contract at any time by giving notice in writing to Wedding Planners, P&O Cruises, Carnival House, 100 Harbour Parade, Southampton SO15 1ST, but in that event P&O Cruises shall be entitled to levy a cancellation charge as a percentage of the price of the Weddings at Sea Package, as appropriate, in accordance with the following scales:

Period within which notice of cancellation of wedding is received by P&O Cruises	Cancellation charges (percentage of price of Weddings at Sea Package paid)
From the date of booking of wedding up until and including 120 days before departure	Deposit
119 to 90 days before departure	45% of Weddings at Sea Package
89 to 60 days before departure	65% of Weddings at Sea Package
59 to 30 days before departure	90% of Weddings at Sea Package
29 to 0 days before departure or post-departure For fly cruises, departure day is the date of the flight departure.	100% of Weddings at Sea Package

Please note that the costs to P&O Cruises of cancellation of any Optional Extras booked by the Passenger will be payable in addition to the amounts set out above.

Cancellation of the Contract does not automatically cancel the cruise contract between P&O Cruises and the Passenger. Please see the Booking Conditions for details of cancellation charges applicable in the event that the Passenger wishes to cancel the cruise.

8. CHANGES TO THE WEDDING BY P&O CRUISES

P&O Cruises reserves the right to alter the time or the day upon which the wedding is to take place on the cruise or to alter wedding arrangements should it become necessary on operational, commercial or other grounds.

9. CANCELLATION OF THE WEDDING BY P&O CRUISES

Whilst P&O Cruises will do its best not to cancel the wedding after a booking has been made, it shall nevertheless be entitled at any time to cancel the Contract where this reasonably becomes necessary on operational, commercial or other grounds.

P&O Cruises will inform the Passengers of any such cancellation as quickly as possible and will make a refund of monies received under the Contract.

If the wedding is cancelled and the reason for the cancellation is not due to force majeure (as defined in the Booking Conditions) or the Passengers' breach of the Contract, compensation will also be payable in accordance with the table below.

Period within which notice of cancellation of wedding given by P&O Cruises	Compensation per Weddings at Sea package
Up to and including 120 days before departure	5% credit and £1000
119 to 90 days before departure	10% credit and £1000
89 to 60 days before departure	15% credit and £1000
59 to 30 days before departure	20% credit and £1000
29 to 0 days before departure	30% credit and £1000
Post-departure	50% credit and £1000

The value of any credit (which can be used to pay for weddings at sea or cruises) will be calculated by reference to the price paid for the Weddings at Sea Package and may only be used for another booking with P&O Cruises. Any such new booking must be made by no later than 31 December of the year after the date of the original cruise.

P&O Cruises will also be entitled to cancel the Contract if it has not been possible to obtain a valid licence from the Registry General of Bermuda for the wedding date. If the failure to obtain a valid licence is due to the fault or delay of the Registry General of Bermuda and there is no fault or delay on the part of the Passenger, P&O Cruises will make a refund of monies received under the Contract. P&O Cruises will have no further liability.

A caveat may be recorded against an application for a licence where the Registry General of Bermuda receives a written notice from a person stating his name, that the marriage is forbidden and the grounds as to why the marriage should not take place. Passengers will be responsible for liaising with the Registry General of Bermuda at the Passengers' cost to ensure that any caveat is removed before the marriage can go ahead. P&O Cruises reserves the right to cancel the wedding where, for these reasons, the licence cannot be obtained in time. Cancellation charges for the Contract will then apply.

Please note that the provisions above apply to cancellation of the wedding under the Contract only. Please see the Booking Conditions for full details of Passengers' rights on alteration and cancellation of cruise bookings both prior to and after departure.

10. INSURANCE & LIABILITY

P&O Cruises recommends that Passengers take out suitable wedding insurance to cover circumstances which may mean they are unable to get married. Please note that the P&O Cruises' travel insurance will not cover Passengers for the costs of a cancelled wedding.

For claims not involving personal injury or death due to P&O Cruises' negligence,

P&O Cruises' liability for improper performance of the Contract shall be limited to a maximum of twice the price which Passengers affected paid for the Weddings at Sea Package and Optional Extras.

11. DOCUMENTATION

Please note that it is Passengers' responsibility to:

- 1) Produce all personal documentation needed for the wedding to take place (e.g. valid passport and where appropriate, copy of decree of divorce or death certificate);
- 2) Check that documentation issued by or on behalf of P&O Cruises correctly records their personal details. P&O Cruises cannot accept liability for problems caused as a result of inaccuracy (or inconsistency when compared to documents such as the Passenger's passport) of personal details on the wedding licence and/or other documentation. Please be aware that such problems can mean the wedding has to be cancelled; and
- 3) Obtain and pay for any documentation required to facilitate the marriage, whether such documentation is required at any time by P&O Cruises or the Registry General of Bermuda. Any liaison with the Registry General of Bermuda in relation to the marriage which becomes necessary as a result of a requirement for additional documentation must be undertaken by the Passenger, unless P&O Cruises agrees otherwise.
- 4) Obtain and pay for any documentation required to facilitate the marriage to be translated in to English where necessary and by an approved translator.
